

Women in Digital Home Technology Integration are in High Demand!

As a CalWomenTech Site, female students in CCSF's CNIT Department can take advantage of many career resources such as:

- Checking out software and publications that will boost your tech skills through the CalWomenTech Learning Library
- Searching for jobs on the WomenTech E-jobs site
- Reading inspiring role model stories
- Networking with other women in your field through the WomenTech Talk Yahoo Group
- Finding a mentor through our e-mentoring site

Companies such as AT&T, Comcast, and Best Buy's Geek Squad always have a need for entry level technicians, starting at $18/hour!

Register now for CCSF's new Digital Home Technology Integration (DHTI) program in the CNIT Department. After completing the certification program in one year (full-time) you'll have the skills to help people install technology in their homes. Graduates from this program can begin their career as an entry level premise technician or installer with opportunities for advancement!
